

Kensington Neighbourhood Centre

Tuesday 16 October Gilbert and Sullivan Morning Melody
11:00am – noon

Gilbert and Sullivan sing-along for all lovers of music with talented soprano Phoebe DeKlerk

Friday 26 October Public Conversations on writing about crime and the law
7:30pm

Presenters Presenters: Acclaimed novelist, short-story writer, screenwriter and journalist, Helen Garner and award-winning journalist, author and academic, Associate Professor Margaret Simons with journalist, science writer and educator, Jo Chandler

A truly fascinating subject explored by celebrated local writers. Not to be missed.

Saturday 27 October The Art of the Stitch
1:30pm

Presenter: Margaret Rolfe AO, quilt maker, quilt historian and author of many quilting books – 'All Stitched Up: My Life with Quilts' Exhibitions by: Margaret Rolfe AO, Stella Hyde, Anne Heyes, Dominique Rada, Yarn Yarn and others.

A fascinating afternoon of quilting, fashion, millinery, multicultural needlework, fabric jewelry, knitting and much more.

Proudly supported by:

